Glendale Police are seeking assistance in finding an alleged Culver City gang member suspected of fatally stabbing a Glendale youth at a dance last September.

Detective Robert Masucci said Alain Montilla Francisco, 17, was identified by witnesses as the youth who stabbed Lysander Luis Gonzalez, 19, in the bathroom of the Glendale Masonic Temple on Sept. 20 while Gonzalez was trying to break up a fight.

Since then, however, efforts to locate Francisco in the United States, Canada or his native Philippines have been unsuccessful, and police said they think he is in hiding in California.
